OW Bunker announces fraud in Singapore subsidiary and additional, significant risk management loss

COMPANY ANNOUNCEMENT

5 November 2014

No. 25/2014

FRAUD IN SINGAPORE SUBSIDIARY ADDITIONAL SIGNIFICANT RISK MANAGEMENT LOSS

The senior management of OW Bunker has today been informed about a fraud committed by senior employees in the Singapore-based subsidiary Dynamic Oil Trading (DOT). The case is under investigation. The extent of the fraud is not yet clear, but preliminary findings suggest a potential loss of around USD 125 million.

Isolated from the above, a review of OW Bunker's risk management contracts has revealed a significant risk management loss in addition to the loss of USD 24.5 million announced on October 23, 2014 (Company Announcement 23/2014). As of today, the mark to market loss is around USD 150 million.

In order to reduce risk management exposure to an absolute minimum level, risk management contracts are currently being unwound.

Head of Risk Management and EVP Jane Dahl Christensen has as a consequence of the risk management loss been dismissed with immediate effect.

The above events affects OW Bunker's operations and credit facilities. OW Bunker is currently in discussions with the syndicate banks. OW Bunker will inform the market further as soon as possible.
